The Vatican head of global organized crime

Do not only look at what the Pope says, but what all of them do. By their fruits you shall recognize them.

The Pope is a blasphemer and the head of organized crime from his base in Italy.

The Roman Catholic church is against homosexuality, but has a priesthood that hides abusive gay priests.

The Catholic Church is against free masonry but all their cardinals are order brothers.

The Catholic church is against the mafia, but has a bank that gives interest on the Mafioso's accounts.

The Vatican is the perfect hiding place for criminals, a global organization protected by religious freedom. Nazi leaders were given priestly garments, the perfect disguise, so that they could "escape" to Argentina.
